

MDN On-Demand Team Discipleship Video Curriculum Outline: Suggested Steps to Success

I. Introduction

- A. Welcome and opening prayer. Always mention the Church and Senior Pastor or organizational leader.
- B. Brief personal background for the Host/leader.
- C. Overview of video men's curriculum goals and topic.

II. Participant Manual

Before showing the video, hand out the downloadable, note-taking - discussion guide that corresponds to the specific episode. (The leader should always print the single-page copy to hand out to each man).

- A. Suggest men take notes (using the PDF Field Manual Note page handout provided) during the video.
- B. Give the men a minute to look over the PDF Field Manual before starting the video.
- C. Mention the length of each video segment to men before playing.

III. Video Episode For Each Session.

Showing of Video: You have multiple options to view the video:

- A. Live together (Church or another's home) or
- B. Live together online (Zoom Type Platform) or
- C. Individually before coming together live.

MDN On-Demand Team Discipleship

Video Curriculum Outline: Suggested Steps to Success

IV. Team Activity: Discussion Question (Provided in Field Manual)

What the Host/leader says to men:

- A. Tell men they will break into teams of 3-5 men for 20-25 minutes. (No surprises).
- B. Ask the men who prefer not to share to just listen to their brothers. Simply say "pass."
- C. Ask men to focus their talk on the relevant Episode question or Bible verse.
- D. Ask men not to teach each other but to ask each other questions.
- E. Ask men to pick one spokesperson from each team to share key takeaways from the team discussion. Allow 1-2 minutes for each. (Suggest doing only 3-6 groups).

What the Host/leader does with men:

1. Read the Question from the handout, out loud to the team. (They will see it in their handouts).
2. Break men into small teams of 3-5 men.
3. Give men 20-25 minutes to discuss the question. Leader to alert men two (2) minutes before the end.
4. Give 1-2 minutes for a spokesperson for each group to share key takeaways from the discussion.

V. Closing Comments

- A. The Leader assigns men to read follow-up MAN-nerism™ devotion for this session at home.
- B. The Leader gives the men the title of the next Episode with the next meeting date.
- C. The Leader prays, edifies, and gives thanks first to the Lord and then Senior Pastor or leader.

Optional: Time permitting ask men to pray with their small discussion team for each other.

Optional: The Leader/Host or another leader prays for the group. Create a "Ring of Fire" (circle of men holding hands to end). Yes, real men hold hands.